SETTLEMENT OF PENSION/GRATUITY CLAIMS—STATE FORCES PERSONNEL.

The Ministry of Defence, Government of India have notified that representations have been received in that Ministry from various sources alleging delay in the settlement of Pension and Gratuity claims of Ex-State Forces Personnel who were released from service, consequent on the integration of the State Forces with the Indian Army. Finalisation of these claims which numbered over 42,000 was a gigantic task rendered difficult by the diversity of rules and method of documentation in different States. As a result, the Government of India have had to be moved very frequently to solve the "deadlocks" covering practically every aspect of pension work, which could not, under any circumstances, be settled locally on the basis of the established rules or regulations of the States.

In spite of the arduous difficulties and the magnitude and complicated nature of the work involved, prompt and speedy action has been taken to finalize the claims of the released personnel. So far as the claims of the personnel of the Mysore State Forces are concerned, out of 1943 cases involved, 1754 cases have been settled, leaving a balance of only 189 cases.

All possible efforts are being made to settle the remaining cases with the least possible delay.
